

International Visit

Here's Johnny.....

International Visits

Army Regulation 380-10

Security

Foreign Disclosure and Contacts with Foreign
Representatives

Headquarters
Department of the Army
Washington, DC
6 June 2003

UNCLASSIFIED

Official
Government to Government
Contacts

Self-Invited Visits

One-time Visit Authorization

Recurring Visit Authorization

Extended Visit Authorization

Self-Invited Visits

One-time Visit Authorizations

- Contact for single, short-term event (less than 30 days) and for specified purpose.
- Expires on end of visit date

Self-Invited Visits

Recurring Visit Authorizations

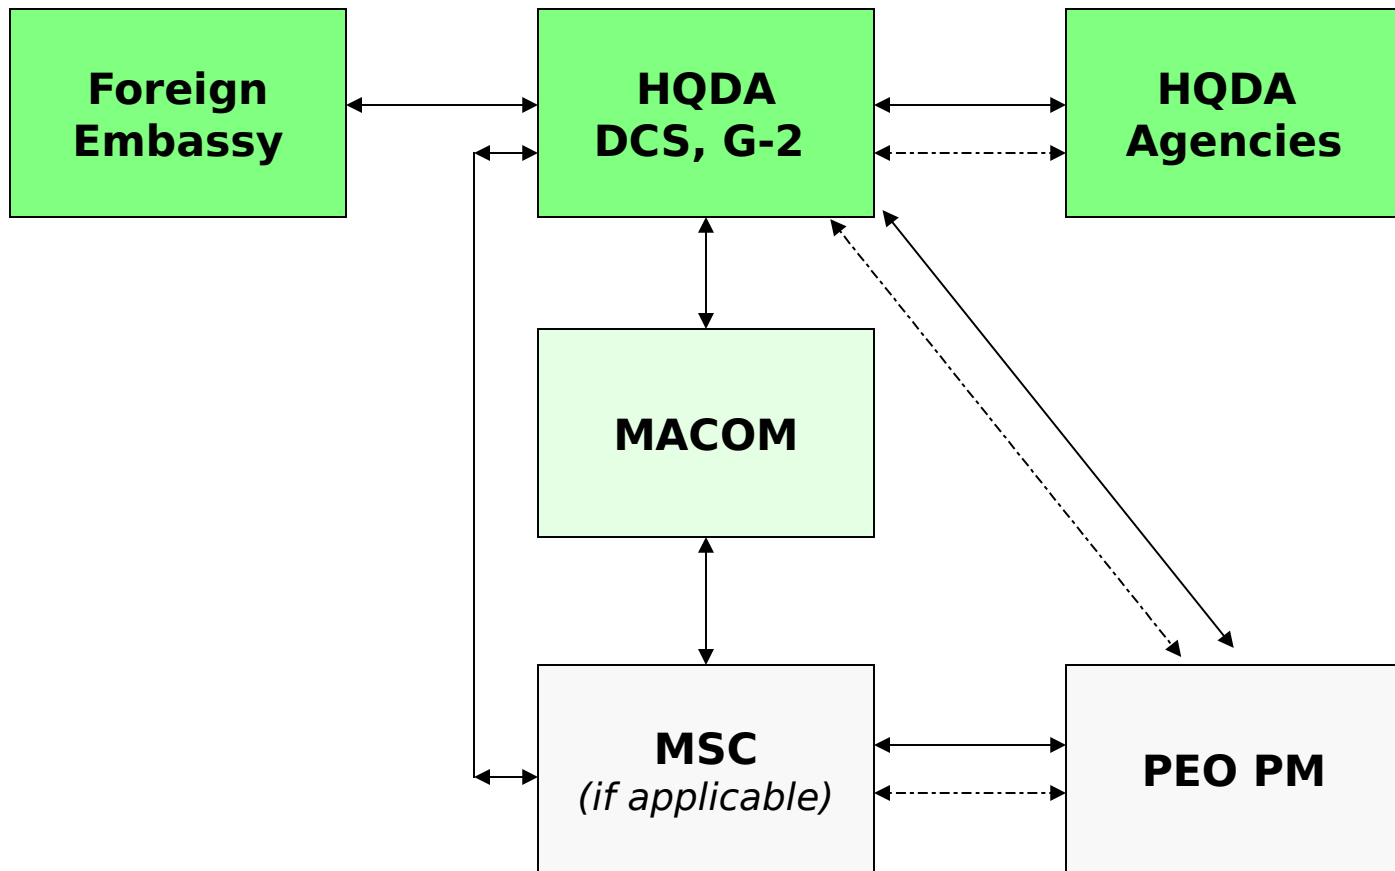

- Permits individual visits over specified period (normally one year) according to government-approved license, contract, agreement, or other programs.

Self-Invited Visits

Extended Visit Authorizations

- Permit single visit for extended period of time (normally beyond 30 days).
- Support Foreign Liaison Officers and Defense Personnel Exchange Program Officers

Invitations

Formal invitation

- Visitors travel on ITOs or honorariums
- U.S. host expend representational or security assistance funds

Informal invitation (no U.S. funding)

- Invitation must clearly state invitee's government must defray costs
- RVA must be submitted
- Ensure coordination with FDO

Standards of Appearance

All foreign military visitors are expected to wear respective country's uniform.

Exceptions: Taiwan

Submission of RVAs

- DA approval
- Submitted 30 days prior to start date of visit
- Unannounced/unscheduled visits to organization facilities without prior approval NOT permitted

Visits Not Covered

- Visits by foreign students who are visiting to participate in security assistance training on ITOs pursuant to DOD 5105.38-M
- Visits by foreign nationals participating in U.S. Information Agency tours
- Unclassified visits by Canadian government officials and certified under U.S.- Canada Joint Certification Program
- Visits for activities that are open to public

Visits Not Covered

- Visits to DOD Components or DOD contractor facilities by foreign national employees of U.S. contractors owned by foreign interests.
- Visits by foreign nationals who are not representing their government in an official capacity.
- Visits that do not involve access to CMI or programs or to CUI and that are sponsored, controlled, administered, and recorded by U.S. European Command under its Joint Contact Team Program (The Marshall Center).

Contact

Officer

Definition: DOD official designated in writing to oversee and control all contacts, requests for information, consultations, access, and other activities of foreign nationals, who are assigned to, or are visiting, DOD Component or subordinate organization.

Contact Officer Responsibilities:

Foreign representatives that visit an Army activity or facility understand terms of the visit authorization, including responsibilities and limitations.

Foreign representatives are provided access only to that CMI or CUI that has been authorized for release to their

Contact Officer

Responsibilities (continued):

Co-workers are informed of limitations on access to information by foreign representatives and their responsibilities in dealing with them.